

General Information

- WUWNet13 will take place at the International Conference Hall on the 11th floor of the library building at the National Sun Yat-sen University. Buses will be provided to pick up and return the attendees from and to the hotels. In case you miss the bus, take a taxi (~$4 and 10 min) to 中山大學圖書館.
- For individuals, make your reservations by filling the reservation form and fax it to the hotel. Scan and send a copy to tc.yang@mail.nsysu.edu.tw. For groups, send your reservation requests to tc.yang@mail.nsysu.edu.tw.
- Get your cash at the airport or use ATM ($1 ≈ 30 NTD); most transactions are in cash except at hotels, HSR, major restaurants and shops, where you can use credit cards.
- English signs are everywhere; many speak English in Taiwan.

VISA to Taiwan

- Citizens of many countries can visit Taiwan for 30 days without visa, others please check <http://www.taiwanembassy.org/> for visa requirements
- Citizens of People's Republic of China residing overseas need 6-8 weeks to apply for visa to Taiwan.
  - Apply directly through the Taiwan Representation office (8 weeks). They will contact us to provide guarantee letters etc.
  - Faster way is to fill in the Visa Application form, provide a scanned copy of your photo, passport front page, proof of employment (e.g., employment ID card) by email to T.C. Yang at tc.yang@mail.nsysu.edu.tw. There is a fee of $20 which will be collected later.

Travel Information

- There are more flights to Taipei (Taoyuan Airport) than to Kaohsiung. It is convenient to fly to Taipei and then take the high speed rail (HSR) train to Kaohsiung (one and half hour ride). There is a train every half hour. The last train leaves Taoyuan at 10:31 PM. For directions to take the HSR see below.
- It is recommended (for newcomers) to use taxi when traveling in town. The taxi is relatively inexpensive and convenient. Most of all, you will not get lost. The metro and bus are good transportations with English signs also.
